FROM EDITOR'S DESK

In the month of June our University was slowly trying to recoil to normalcy after the heavy impact of COVID – 19. The exam section was busy in rendering their sincere service to conduct online examinations for B.Ed. Programme. All teaching faculties also took classes for M.Ed., and M.Phil. Students without any flaw. Under the prudent stewardship of our Honourable Vice-Chancellor, Staff Members started doing many activities in connection with NAAC Accreditation Process. Our most respected Registrar was also extending his fullest cooperation towards achieving this long-term goal. The IQAC Director, Prof. S. Mani and Deputy Director, Dr. U. Pandian took up ceaseless efforts to bring the experts from various colleges to explain about the all the Criteria to our teaching staff members. Many Programmes were organized by Value Education Department, Pedagogical Science Department, Centre for Civil Service Coaching and TNPSC Coaching, Educational Psychology Department, Educational Planning and Administration Department, Centre for Capacity Building Programmes for School Teachers and NSS Unit of our esteemed University.

All the Programmes were very useful to the stakeholders of Education and to the society at large. The scholars of our University were also doing research with much enthusiasm. Good number of Ph.D. Viva-voce examinations were conducted through Online mode. I wish that our university should reach higher heights by achieving many more achievements.
